LABELLE'S LAST WISH FOR BURIAL GRATIFIED

His Body Laid to Rest in Family Section in Oakwood Cemetery.

Friends took charge of the remains of Joseph W. LaBelle, who died early yesterday morning from a self-inflicted wound, after he had made a desperate attempt to kill his wife, and the interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Rev. Dr. John Moncreur read the Episcopal ceremony over the dead.

LaBelle's wife lies in a critical condition at the City Hospital, where she was taken immediately after the shooting. She is in ignorance of the death of her husband, and the wound in her mouth by one of the bullets has made it impossible for her to speak. The physicians yesterday afternoon thought that her chances for recovery were somewhat better.

Drs. Pitt and Witten, of the ambulance corps, yesterday afternoon performed the autopsy over the suicide. It was found that the ball entered the left breast and took a direction downward,

Nearly Severed Her Ear.

Martha Smith, a negro girl, had her left ear almost severed last night by a negro man. The ambulance was called to Ninth and Broad Streets about 9:30 o'clock. The negro had been taken into the engine house. Four stitches from Dr. Pitt placed the hearing machinery back into place, and Martha went on her way while the slasher took his departure.

Was a Record Breaker.

Collections for the month of June in the rental department of J. Thompson Brown & Co., real estate agents, were better than in the same month in any year for a decade or more. Payments were more prompt than ever before.

Three Make Returns.

Messrs. H. Claiborne Epps, E. J. Warren and C. M. Wallace, Jr., all candidates in the recent primary, made their returns as to expenses yesterday. Mr. Epps spent $317, Mr. Warren $124 and Mr. Wallace about $100.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Cemetery, Health and Street Committees Hold Important Meetings.

STREETS IN BAD CONDITION

Many Complaints Brought to the Notice of Committee—Action Deferred.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, } No. 1103 Hull Street.

Three committees met last night—Cemetery, Health and Streets. Secretary W. M. Allen, of the Cemetery Committee, read the monthly report, which was approved. Many improvements have been made in Maury Cemetery. Privet plants are being run round the grounds; a new fence is being put up on the Maury Street side; concrete walks and steps are being placed on the superintendent's house; two fountains in front of the residence, and all necessary whitewashing of trees, fences, etc., is being done. The Health Committee then met. The bills were read and approved, except that of Mr. Morrisette for the burial of Mrs. Sanders, which was referred to the Mayor.

The Street Committee came to order and the report of the secretary was read and approved. The bills were laid on the table.

Mr. Moore then appeared before the committee to lodge complaint against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway for blocking Powell Street, which is crossed by the railway. Mr. Moore said that the people of that street experienced a good deal of trouble and no little danger on account of the frequency with which the crossing was blocked.

It was not unusual, he said, for passage to be stopped from fifteen to twenty minutes, and that he himself had been compelled recently to wait thirty-eight minutes. He asked that the committee take some means to relieve the situation. Mr. C. C. Jones, a member of the City Assembly, who is yardmaster for the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, rose to make answer, and said that he was indirectly responsible for the trouble, but that he was already taking steps to make due remedy. He said that it was a difficult matter to continue cutting trains apart for three crossings, which are all near together. The superintendent, he continued, was taking active steps to relieve the stress, and that the next trainman caught unnecessarily and heedlessly blocking the crossing would be dismissed. He wanted a little time in which to take the necessary steps. It was decided that the matter lay outside the jurisdiction of the Street Committee, as there is no ordinance laid down on the subject, and that the matter would have to be referred to the Mayor as coming under his authority.

Bad Streets.

Then Mr. Duke, of No. 514 West Twelfth Street, rose with a plea that some remedy be applied to the street on which he lives.

He said that the street was filled with holes and gullies and that it is almost a matter of impossibility to walk or drive along it. In front of his house is a stable, with a large pool of water in front, which is both annoying and offensive. It was moved and carried that the City Engineer make an examination of the place to see what could be done and make an estimate of the cost for repairs and report back to the committee.

A letter was read from a dozen or more citizens, complaining of the conditions existing on Baldrige Street, between Seventh and Twelfth Streets, and praying that some remedy be applied thereto. Still another letter was read, complaining of like and worse conditions existing on Semmes Street. W. S. Ballantine, the complainant, added that the street was almost impassable; that this caused a decrease in property values, and that he was well nigh disgusted with Manchester. Several members followed the letter with complaints of their own, and urged that some action be taken immediately to remedy this bad state of affairs. It seems that the condition of Semmes Street is worse than any other, and that it is most deplorable. Then followed a lively debate, which at times rose to some heat, as to how and where the money now in the treasury could be best expended.

Bids for blacksmithing and feed were offered and read. The first was awarded to Mr. Gill, and Mr. Ullman secured the contract for feed.

Off for Alaska.

Mr. John T. Friend, of Manchester, who was married to Miss Effie Spooner Dunn, of Farmville, on Wednesday, started yesterday on their long, lonely trip to the Klondike regions of Alaska, where Mr. Friend has mining interests. They will stop at Leesburg to visit the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Clayton; then at Washington, D. C., and at other points along their western route. Mr. Friend is a native of Chesterfield county, a son of the late Dr. Friend, and brother to the Hull Street drugist, Mr. W. W. Friend.

Personals and Briefs.

Mr. W. C. Newton, of 325 West Fifth Street, is in the city at his residence. His mother, Mrs. J. C. Newton, and his sister have been telegraphed for. Alonzo Nelson and Miss Jeannette Lee Henry were quietly married Monday evening at the home of Mr. Charles Nelson, 146 Decatur Street. Rev. C. O. Woodward, of Cowardin Avenue Church, and his wife are at South Hill, where the former is conducting a revival. Miss Annie Rucker returned Wednesday, after a week's visit to Miss Hunter, of Ashland, Va. Mrs. George P. Guy and daughter, of Hampton, Va., are visiting Mrs. Harry Guy, on Ninth Street road. Rev. Robert P. Lumpkin, of Danville, Va., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Lumpkin, on Ninth Street. A daughter of Mr. White, who has been in bad health for some years, is very ill at her home in East Tenth Street.

CROSSING CASE UP.

Corporation Commission Has a Long Hearing Before It.

The State Corporation Commission was engaged during all of yesterday hearing a petition of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company to restrain the Tidewater Railway Company from crossing its tracks at grade at South Norfolk. The hearing will be continued and possibly concluded today.

The commission will then take the matter under advisement and render its decision later.

There were no less than fifty witnesses, officials and lawyers representing the two roads.

Those who are representing the Tidewater Railway Company are: Messrs. William N.

The Norfolk and Western people present were Messrs. Robert M. Hughes, of Norfolk; Joseph Denny, of Norfolk; and Eppa Hunton, of Richmond.

ELOQUENCE FAILS.

Frank Crawford Forsakes Music for Speech—Other Cases.

Joe Mitchell and Joe Johnson, two pieces of alligator bait, stole a chunk of lead and were whipped in the presence of Sergeant Thomas, of the Police Court, yesterday morning.

W. H. Cornell was disorderly in the Second Market and received thirty days for his own good, so the court said. Cornell did not agree with the court. Sarah Preston was charged with cursing Polly Robertson. All testified differently. "Get out here," cried the court. "They got."

Frank Crawford's wife, who prefers a charge against her husband one week and asked for his release, was again before the court. Frank has been better days and comes of a good family. He is a little drinking and she nagged me. She constantly does this. Your honor, I did wrong, perhaps, but I can't live with this woman. It's human to err, but Divine to forgive," said Frank.

He was sentenced for thirty days. Willie Farrar said he didn't beat Josephine Jefferson, but that he "just coted her and smacked her out a few." He got ten dollars for the smacking. James Matheo was fined $10 for striking W. Dr. Stubbs made a profound salam when he was dismissed, and Ben House-Anderson, of the court for having too much aboard. Simon Mahoney said he wouldn't take anything else intoxicating for six months.

Children's Day Exercises.

Children's Day at Lebanon, near Doan's, on Sunday, July 1st, was well attended, and much appreciated by the large audience.

The church was tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers, which enhanced the beauty of the girls and boys who took part in the exercises. The organist, Miss Kate Bowles, assisted by Miss Kate Anderson, rendered a beautiful music, which charmed the audience. Following is the programme:

Hymn, Jesus Loves Me. Prayer, by pastor, Rev. Ribble. Welcome address, by Master Forrest. A Summer Message, by thirteen girls. "Good-morning Song," by six girls. Solo, "Jesus Loves Me." "The Pilgrim's Song," by three girls. The smaller children came in for their share of the honors by reciting selected verses suitable for the occasion, such as Missionary songs, by Miss Magnolia Priddy and brother; vocal selection, "Where Hast Thou Gleaned," by six girls; recitation, "How to Pray," Miss Norville Cross; a song, "Pretty Morning Glee," by six girls; missionary piece, "Nancy's Penny," recitation, "Frank Vial; recitation, Forrest Priddy.

Soldier Lads in Amelia.

Companies B and C, of the Seventieth Virginia Regiment, commanded, respectively by Captains Miller and Skipwith, will go to Amelia Courthouse on the evening of the 14th instant to witness the unveiling of the Confederate monument. They will remain in encampment there two days, during which time they will parade, fire salutes and engage in sham battles and target practice. Balls are to be given at Osborne Springs and Amelia Courthouse. The men in the two companies number about one hundred. They will leave Richmond at 6 P. M., via the Southern Railway.

Policeman Bradley Wins.

In the weekly target practice held Wednesday afternoon in the armory, Policeman Bradley, of the First District, made the winning score, hitting the bull's eye twenty-two times out of a possible thirty. He was followed by Policeman Wiley, whose record was eighteen out of a possible thirty. In yesterday's practice the target ranged from 100 to 150 yards, instead of the firing line.

Failed of Quorum.

The Common Council, which was to have met in adjourned session last night, failed of a quorum, and previously held immediately called it to meet next Tuesday night.

The Committee on Grounds and Buildings met and transacted routine business.

FEDERAL CIRCUIT COURT SITTING

Opinions in Number of Important Cases to Be Handed Down To-day.

TWO CAUSES WERE ARGUED

The Court Immediately Got Down to Work—Cases Set for Argument.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday convened in this city for a two or three days' term. Judges Goff, Morris and Waddill sitting. Two cases on the docket were argued and submitted, but contrary to expectations, the court handed down no opinions yesterday. It is expected that opinions will be announced in eight or ten cases when the court reconvenes at 10 A. M. to-day.

The following cases were argued yesterday: No. 603, George C. Sturgis, petitioner, vs. Frank P. Corbin, trustee of Morgan-Town Trust Company, bankrupt, re: a contract on petition for review from the District Court of the United States at Clarksburg, W. Va. Argued by A. Leo Well, of Pittsburg, Pa., for the petitioner and by Reese Blizard, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and H. M. Hitchings, of New York, for the respondents, and submitted.

No. 604, Canton Roll and Machine Company and Johnson, Owens, Reuther Company, petitioners, vs. John G. Frazer, Frank P. Corbin, trustee, etc., et al., respondents. On petition for review from the District Court of the United States at Clarksburg, W. Va. Argued by B. M. Ambler, of Parkersburg, W. Va., for the petitioner, and by Reese Blizard, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and H. M. Hitchings, of New York, for the respondents, and submitted.

Petition for Rehearing.

A petition for a rehearing was presented by John G. McCluer and F. B. Enslow in the case of Max Drey, appellant, vs. Gilbert L. Watson, et al. Cases in the call for to-day are: No. 615, Gerard D. Moore, trustee and administrator, vs. T. C. Green, et al., from the Circuit Court at Clarksburg, W. Va. To be argued by J. M. Mason, Jr., of Charleston, for the petitioner, and submitted on briefs by A. W. Macdonald and Forrest W. Brown, of Charleston, W. Va., for the respondents. These attorneys were admitted to practice in this court yesterday: Reese Blizard and Charles T. Caldwell, of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Hector M. Hitchings, of New York; and M. Mason, Jr., of Charleston, W. Va.

All the officers of the court are in attendance, including Marshal Morgan Treat, this being his first appearance in the court since his reinstatement in that position.

CHILD IN DISTRESS.

Afflicted, Lost and Penniless, She Was Ejected From Street Car. Opening Scene.

Blind in one eye, helpless to find her way to her home and without a cent to her name, a little ten-year-old white girl was ejected from a Main Street car at Seventh and Main Streets last night at exactly 8:50 o'clock by the conductor who had, so the child stated, carried her past her street. But for two young men who were passengers of the car and who got off when they saw the girl put off, little Mattie Stewart, of No. 1322 Fifth Street, might have wandered about the street aimlessly for hours and perhaps come to some grief.

As the car neared Seventh Street, the conductor spoke to the little girl, who had, presumably, asked him about the street at which she was to get off. Rudely, the conductor was seen to take the child and push her to the rear end of the car, and a very great deal of tell her to get off and catch the next car going back. That was all he said, and the car moved eastward.

Two young men left the car and asked the child the cause of her trouble. She said that she had been visiting and that her relatives had placed her on the car and told the car conductor where to let her off. At the cross street leading to Chaffin Street, she knew the locality and could have found her way home. With tears in her eyes, the ten-year-old child said in the day she could have told where she was, but at night, "the conductor told me I was going blind in this eye (touching the right eye). I can't see very well. I wish one of you would go with me home. My name is Mattie Stewart, and I live at No. 1322 Chaffin Street.

She was given car fare and placed on an Oakwood and Main Street car, and the conductor instructed to put her off at the proper corner.

MANY LEWIS BUTTONS.

Shipment of Fifty Thousand Received in This City. A shipment consisting of some fifty thousand Lewis buttons, designed to promote the prospects of election to the presidency of Hon. Lunsford L. Lewis, of this city, have been received in this city and are being distributed widely throughout the State. The nomination of Judge Lewis is so well assured that he will be named without an effort. The buttons contain a fair likeness of Judge Lewis, the margin or frame of the portrait being composed of the national colors.

Great speculation is being indulged in as to the nominees for the other two offices. Hon. R. P. Thorpe, of Norfolk, Ex-Governor of the State, is the favorite for Governor, and Hon. A. P. Ellinger, of Tazewell, a member of the constitutional convention of 1901-2, are frequently mentioned as good attorney-generalship timbers, while Hon. Jacob Yeast, of Staunton, Ex-Congressman from the Tenth District, is often mentioned for Lieutenant-Governor.

Hon. L. L. Lewis former president of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and now United States Attorney, is not a candidate for the place, but it will be offered to him by practically unanimous desire, and his friends are confident that he will not decline the honor.

McCarthy Council, Royal Arcanum, Decides to Help Members Pay Dues.

McCarthy Council, No. 235, Royal Arcanum, held a very interesting meeting at Lee Camp Hall last night and adopted with unanimity and enthusiasm a resolution, which gives abundant evidence that the Arcanum is a fraternal institution in fact as well as name, and which will go very far towards silencing the criticism as to freeing the older members. Those best informed in Arcanum matters have all along scouted the idea of any intention on the part of the order to do the older members the least injustice, and have maintained that the protestants would recognize the wisdom of the resolution after to that. The resolution that follows, and the enthusiasm it developed, proves that the Arcanum is a brotherhood of true men, based on noble principles. Here it is: Resolved, That McCarthy Council, No. 235, Royal Arcanum, be furnished with a complete list of all its members over fifty-five years of age, and that the said list be referred to a committee of five, to be appointed by the regent, for the purpose of devising some plan whereby our older brethren may be assisted in paying assessments after to that. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt drove directly to Sagamore Hill.

GET JAIL SENTENCE FOR KILLING WOMAN

Joe Langley Was Fined Five Dollars and Sent to Jail.

Joe Langley, a negro, charged with murdering Mary Kenney, a negress, was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter in the Henrico Circuit Court yesterday afternoon, and sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and to remain confined in the county jail for the period of twelve months.

The jury was out for only a short time, when the verdict was returned. The trial was consumed in the hearing of the evidence and the listening to the argument in the case. On the 5th of April, 1904, Mary Kenney was struck on the head with a rock thrown by Langley. She died on the 18th of the same month. A warrant was sworn out for the man, but he had made his escape from the city. A few weeks ago he was arrested in Newport News upon information furnished by Deputy Sheriff Fryer.

Senator Halsey, of Lynchburg, and Mr. A. B. Dickinson, of this city, represented the defendant.

One Charter Granted.

The Corporation Commission issued only one charter yesterday: The Norfolk Nevada Corporation, principal office, Norfolk, Va.; incorporators—J. H. Coffey, president; R. W. Whitley, vice-president; A. B. Carney, secretary and treasurer, all of Norfolk, Va.; capital stock—maximum, $5,000; minimum, $3,000; objects and purposes—to buy, sell and hold letters patent and patent rights and to manufacture, buy, sell and trade in patented and other manufactured articles.

Arrest Disorderly Character. Acting under orders from Chief of Police Werner, the police are arresting disorderly women throughout the city. Judging from the punishment meted out to the lot brought before Judge Crutchfield yesterday, it is safe to assume that none of those who have been caught in the meshes of the law will be disorderly on the streets for several months to come. Judge Crutchfield has issued an edict that he will clean Mayo Street of disorderly characters.

Mr. Owen to Return. Hon. John J. Owen, of Prince Edward, is in the city. Mr. Owen is a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates, and it seems altogether likely that he will have no opposition. He has served in the House for several terms.

Successful Lawn Party. The lawn party given at No. 807 East Leigh Street last night by ladies of Immanuel Baptist Church was a beautiful affair and a decided success. The attendance was large. Sweet music by several string instruments added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Licensed to Wed. In the Hustings Court yesterday Jacob Horwitz secured a license to marry Mary D. Kinney.

An Erroneous Report. (By Associated Press.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 6.—The report sent out from Newberry, N. C., to the effect that on account of the death of the child of a juror, a mistrial had been declared in the case of Thomas W. Dewey, charged with embezzling about $10,000 from the Merchants and Farmers' Bank, was untrue. The juror in question was to come to trial, and a decision was reached. The attendance was large. Sweet music by several string instruments added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

The last speech will be delivered tonight by ex-Governor Aycock, also for the defense.
